

MAVSILLE DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1897.

ONE CENT.

SPRING CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Cuts

UPON THE LEDGER for free notices have become so numerous that we are forced to publish the following terms:

Our Notice of Shippers.

Excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc. The Ledger will charge FIVE CENTS a line, and hereafter this will be its unchangeable rule. This, now over.

Does Not Include

Notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for business notices in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The bill is $45. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy. Followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, we "will" publish a notice to be inserted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

.....
All matter for publication must be handed in before 5 o'clock in the morning of each day.

.....
If you have an item of news, please call UP THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

We Must Make Room

In anticipation of a big fall trade, and realizing that goods pertaining to our line will advance in price, we have already begun to receive shipments. Moreover it will not be long before our great line of Men's Shoes will come in, so you see we must make room. Now, if you will look in our windows and see the line of suits we are offering at $10 you will assist us in making room. All of our Fancy Cheviot Suits, in Cheviot, Plaid, Stripes, etc. Suits that we sold at $16, $18, $20 and $15, go in this sale.

No house in the state ever did or ever will offer a line of Suits like these for the price,

-$10.00!

It is the greatest sacrifice sale we ever made, but as our patrons will be benefited, and it serves us right to money, we will only be too glad to have you take advantage of this sale. We have no room to quote prices on our medium grades, but the entire stock will be sold at proportionate prices.

Please bear in mind this: No Suit will be sent out on approval. No Suit will be charged. Only

:-:-: CASH!

Will buy the goods during this sale. Money, however, will be cheerfully returned if goods don't suit upon home examination.

The high-class attractions at Electric Park this week are nearly drawing big crowds of our best people. Let it be understood that a decent, refined class of stage artists are among us, and the charm of wit, the alluring light of repartee and the pleasure which fashionable clothes well worn bring cannot but be a magnet to draw our people. The songs, dances and jokes are new and done with a finish, the program is not too long, beginning promptly at 8:30 and you get home by 10 o'clock, the tent is bright and the arrangements comfortable, so go out. Ten cents admits you.

ALL OVER NOW.

The New Board of Pension Examining Surgeons Step Into Office.

Not long since the Board of Pension Examining Surgeons that was appointed under the Republican Administration started to hold its meeting and organize, but the old Board refused to turn over the books and papers, claiming to be under the protecting arm of the Civil Service Law.

This fact was communicated to headquarters at Washington, and yesterday the Secretary of the old Board received orders from the National Capital to step down and out and allow the new Board to step up and in, as the Civil Service had nothing to do with the Examiners.

The new Board held a meeting yesterday afternoon and examined three applicants, and adjourned until 10:30 this morning, when it will hold a meeting until 4:30 this afternoon to examine quite a number of applicants.

The trunk had been broken open. It contained nothing save keepsakes of Mrs. Hutchins, and was being shipped from her former home to this city, the appellation being that it was stolen from a car and carried to the river and broken open.

A SURE GO.

The Canvassers For the Maysville Fair Meet With a Warm Reception.

The canvass will continue for the guarantee fund to Maysville's Fair.

Most pleased are its promoters with the reception with which they have met.

It must be remembered that to have a success all persons in our city must take an interest, not this certain few or that clique, but the whole population pulling together, putting in a mile here and more there according to financial ability, then that measure of success is assured which will boom the old town for four days as it has never boomed in previous jubilees.

This is a Harvest Home which shall go as a preliminary step of rejoicing to the National Thanksgiving Day, and the man or woman, boy or girl, who does not enter into the spirit of the occasion is selfish and hard and unworthy the name of citizen.

Let us put off the garb of "don't care!" and once more go back to the good old days of being "given to hospitality," and you can bet your collar-button the return will be seven-fold in pleasure, the profits in dollars thirty-fold. Try it once.

SOCIETY

Miss Elizabeth Payne Johnson of West Fourth street most pleasantly entertained last night in honor of Miss Escott of Louisville, who is the guest of Miss Blatterman. The Johnson home was aglow with beauty, redolent with sweet flowers and full of air of cordiality and welcome which belong to them and is a natural radiance as the rose's fragrance. Miss Escott is a charming girl deserving of the distinction one who can wear the crown of honor with that becoming modesty and loveliness which gives real worth to maidenhood and makes woman so valuable.

The guests included the smart set among our belles with their visitors, who just now are the means whereby the social pool is being stirred. It promises to be a regular Bethesda effort ere the week runs out.

Last night Mrs. George L. Cox gave a small function to honor Miss Escott and the Misses Shelby, the former the guest of Miss Blatterman and the latter the guests of the Misses Pickett. The evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, ran till 12, and the hours were full of that pleasure and joy which are borne upon the wings of unconventional, true hospitality, which flow in with every set of the beautiful hostess. The honored guests are highly cultured city girls, full of social forms and happy conversation, chic and gracious, captivating in all avenues of life's demands.

This afternoon Miss Campbell will entertain her friends from 1 till 8 o'clock.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the cause of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Adopted at Louisville, Aug. 14th, 1897.

Resolved, by the Republican party in Convention assembled:

First—That we reaffirm the principles of the Republican party as set forth in the platform adopted by it at St. Louis in 1860.

Second—That we endorse the Republican National and State Administrations, and especially commend the action of our present state officers in their efforts to suppress mob violence and to preserve the financial credit of the state.

Third—We commend the action of the representatives of the Republican party in the passage of a tariff bill which will raise revenue sufficient to support the Government, prevent the issue of interest-bearing bonds, protect American labor and maintain the National credit.

Fourth—We are opposed to a system of Civil Service that builds up an official class, practically a life tenure in almost all branches of the public service, and we demand that the Civil Service Law be modified so as to limit the term of service to four years, with the privilege of reappointment or promotion, subject to such restrictions as will secure competent officials and give to every section of the country its proper proportion of them.

Fifth—We heartily sympathize with the struggling people of China in their efforts to secure liberty and independence.

Sixth—That we recommend to the people the adoption of the Constitutional amendment submitted by this Legislature, allowing all cities and towns the privilege of regulating under legislative supervision the method of levying the taxes they impose on themselves for city and town expenses.

Seventh—We favor the passage of a law that will protect the laborers of Kentucky from the competition of convict labor, and, if necessary to accomplish said result, an amendment to the Constitution permitting such legislation.

"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

WHILE the diffusion of the value of land by the extension of railroads, and the broader application of machinery to agriculture, with facilities of transportation from remote regions, introducing new sources of supplies to the markets, reduced the price of wheat, and these reasons were beyond the control of the farmers, there were faults in the farmers themselves of which they should be sensible. They seemed to be anxious to extend the wheat areas on their own land, and committed the same error in that particular that has damaged the Southern cotton planters. Let the farmers have diversity of crops.

Miss Christine Milan is ill with fever at her home on East Second street.

Mr. Percy L. Mann is now connected with The Evening Telegraph at Superior, Wis.

Mr. George T. Wood's many friends will regret to learn of her illness, which has been of some ten days duration. She was no better last evening.

The State School of Reform Commissioners have decided to locate one of the schools near Lexington. The cost will be limited to $50,000 and the institution will be for both sexes.

Mr. John Cole, the wife of a prosperous farmer living on Kenney, Lewis county, gave birth to twin boys Monday, making three pair of twins in five years. All are healthy children.

An epidemic of a peculiar throat disease is killing children rapidly in the Kaler neighborhood of Graves county. Within the past two days twenty children died and the same day several other deaths from the same disease took place. The doctors are puzzled.

Four men were arrested and jailed at Dover Tuesday night on suspicion of having shot a C. and O. brakeman at Foster Tuesday morning. Two gave their names as John Liggett and Henry Weber of this city, while the other two are William Smith and Dave Thompson of Ironton, Negroes.

An entire change of bill at Electric Park tonight. New songs, new delusions and a most absurdly funny after piece. The Dragons will charm you. Wilkes will please you. Seeker will make you laugh. Felice will have you craning your neck, while Baldock will cure your digestion. Good night.

Mr. David Parker, after an absence of several years from the city, returned yesterday, and met his old friends in the usual way, got drunk, was arrested, was taken before Judge Wadsworth this morning, who gave David the choice of fifteen days in the rock quarry or fifteen minutes to leave town. David took the latter and got an elegant scold on himself.

Mr. Michael Schweitzer, ex-United States Storekeeper of Augusta, is lying at death's door in that place. Several nights ago he visited a billiard parlor owned by a relative, and upon leaving the place was struck in the back of the head with a billiard cue, which caused concussion of the brain. He has been lying in a comatose condition ever since and it is understood that his physician says his injuries will prove fatal.

TALKING WITH MARS.

Sound Carried Through Miles of Space by Bell's Phonograph.

Imagine making one's voice heard on another planet! To hear the actual words and tones of beings—if they exist—have been by millions of miles of empty space! There is nothing, probably, which the ordinary man would seem more hopelessly impossible than this.

Yet science has solved the problem.

It is proposed to telephone along the rays of a shaft of light.

It has not been proposed, it has already been done, though not yet through interplanetary distances.

But if light can carry sound for a single mile it can carry it to the ends of the universe, and this perhaps is really more wonderful than the fact that through light, by means of the spectroscopic, we can analyze the remotest star and say with certainty that it contains iron and sodium and other well known metals.

Phonograph is a more exact name for an instrument which carries words on the wings of light, and so it has been christened by its inventor, Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, who, it is reported, is now busily engaged in perfecting it.

Prof. Bell's mode of procedure is as follows:

Taking as his source of light a pencil of sunlight admitted through a small aperture, or an arc lamp, the rays of which were rendered parallel by being passed through a suitable lens, he reflected these rays to the point where the message was to be received by means of a thin diaphragm of mica, which, being silvered, served as a mirror.

In order to intensify the effect a parabolic mirror was set up at the reflecting station into which the rays were directed, and by which they were focused at a single point. At this point was placed a bit of selenium included in a local telephonic circuit, and the apparatus was complete.

So long as the reflecting diaphragm remained quiet all the rays were concentrated upon the selenium of the focus of the parabolic mirror, and the electrical current remained steady; but the moment a sound was uttered through the transmitter the sensitive mica was set in vibration, becoming alternately concave and convex.

When convex it dispersed the rays, and when concave it concentrated them at a point nearer than the parabolic mirror. In both cases the result was the same—the amount of light focused on the selenium was diminished and this variation was in exact correspondence with the sound waves acting on the mica.

The variations in the conductivity of the selenium varied the strength of the electric current passing through it in the same manner, and the sounds were reproduced in the usual way.

The rest is merely a question of the size of the apparatus and its perfect adjustment. If a reflector—or a series of reflectors made to vibrate in unison by means of an electric current—large enough to turn an appreciable beam of light upon the earth could be set up in Mars, and a parabolic receiver of adequate dimensions constructed upon the earth, the speech of the Martians might be heard upon our planet. The theory is feasible.

1. Chlorophyll a (Chl a) is the primary photosynthetic pigment in most plants and algae. It is a green pigment that absorbs light energy in the blue-violet and red-orange regions of the visible spectrum. Chl a is essential for the light-dependent reactions of photosynthesis, where it converts light energy into chemical energy in the form of ATP and NADPH.
